

Rosetta Stone® Version 3 - Spanish - Detailed

Grades: Key Stage 2, Key Stage 3, Key Stage 4

States: National Curriculum for England

Subjects: World Languages

Key Stage 2

PROGRAMME OF STUDY	UK.1.	Modern Foreign Language: Pupils develop communication and literacy skills that lay the foundation for future language learning. They develop linguistic competence, extend their knowledge of how language works and explore differences and similarities between the foreign language and English. Learning another language raises awareness of the multi-lingual and multi-cultural world and introduces an international dimension to pupils' learning, giving them an insight into their own culture and those of others.
	1.1.	Understanding and using the foreign language: In the early stages of language learning pupils might be taught:

Key Stage 3

PROGRAMME OF STUDY	UK.1.	Modern Foreign Language: During key stage 3 pupils begin to understand, speak, read and write at least one modern foreign language. They become familiar with the sounds, written form and grammar of the language, and use this knowledge with increasing confidence and competence to express themselves in role plays, conversations and writing. They improve their understanding of the language by listening to people talking about different subjects and by reading a range of texts. They also increase their cultural awareness by communicating with people who speak the language and by using materials from countries and communities where the language is spoken.
	1.1.	Acquiring knowledge and understanding of the target language: Pupils should be taught:

PROGRAMME OF STUDY	UK.1.	Modern Foreign Language: During key stage 3 pupils begin to understand, speak, read and write at least one modern foreign language. They become familiar with the sounds, written form and grammar of the language, and use this knowledge with increasing confidence and competence to express themselves in role plays, conversations and writing. They improve their understanding of the language by listening to people talking about different subjects and by reading a range of texts. They also increase their cultural awareness by communicating with people who speak the language and by using materials from countries and communities where the language is spoken.
	1.2.	Developing language skills: Pupils should be taught:

Key Stage 4

PROGRAMME OF STUDY	UK.1.	Modern Foreign Language: During key stage 4 students begin to use a modern foreign language more independently, drawing on a firmer grasp of grammar and a wider and more complex range of expression. They adapt their use of the language according to context, purpose and audience. They learn to understand a more extensive range of unfamiliar language by reading and listening to a variety of materials from countries and communities where the language is spoken. They also increase their cultural awareness through more direct contact with people who live in those countries and communities.

PROGRAMME OF STUDY	UK.1.	Modern Foreign Language: During key stage 4 students begin to use a modern foreign language more independently, drawing on a firmer grasp of grammar and a wider and more complex range of expression. They adapt their use of the language according to context, purpose and audience. They learn to understand a more extensive range of unfamiliar language by reading and listening to a variety of materials from countries and communities where the language is spoken. They also increase their cultural awareness through more direct contact with people who live in those countries and communities.
